- 6.5. The Tariff and/or Equipment subsidies that the Company makes available to the Customer are subject to the length of contract chosen by the Customer on the Order Form and the terms applicable to such Tariff and/or Equipment, and are based upon the predicted or anticipated revenue over the Customer's contract term for Mobile Network Services (including any notice period). In the event that the Customer fails to make payment for the Mobile Network Services for (or otherwise breach the Contract during) the Minimum Term, and fails to make payment of any early termination charges (including without limitation, those Charges set out in condition 9.5), the Company reserves the right to invoice the Customer for such predicted or anticipated revenue at full retail price without discount, over the full applicable contract term including notice period and to recover any benefits received and losses incurred.

The Company bears no responsibility for actions not executed by the Software and the date of execution is that given by the Company. This may not necessarily be the same date that the request is submitted by the Customer.

7.4. Usage reports are provided on a 'best-efforts' basis and the timeliness and availability of usage data is not guaranteed. It is the responsibility of the Customer to measure usage themselves and establish alerts outside of the Software to limit their exposure to over-usage, should they so wish. The Customer and their End Users may have the ability, using the Software, to establish alerts and automatic barring when usage reaches pre-set limits. Usage data from The Company's suppliers can often be delayed by hours and even days and cannot be relied on entirely to mitigate out-of-bundle charges. Usage is the responsibility of the Customer and their End Users and out-of-bundle charges are payable in full regardless of the quality and timing of data supplied by the Company. The Customer must make this clear to their End Users.
