

Privacy Policy of ORBIX UK Ltd

Your personal data is only stored if you choose to submit it to us, e.g. during the contract process for the provision of ORBIX Services. When you submit your personal data, we will only process it for the purposes of providing you with such services.

What we collect

We will collect the following personal information as provided by you:

- Name and title
- Contact information including email address, phone number, address, postcode, and other contact details
- Payment details for the provision of such services

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to correctly supply services to your needs.

We may also use the information for the following reasons:

- We may use the information internally to help enhance our products and services
- We may occasionally email our newsletters containing information on our new products, or other information which we think you may find interesting, if you choose to receive these by specifically opting in during the registration process, via the email address which you have provided. You may opt out of this at any time by contacting us, or clicking the 'unsubscribe' link in our emails

Use and disclosure of personal data

ORBIX uses your personal data only to the extent necessary for the purpose of providing the service(s) requested by you, technical assistance if required, and for customer management.

Data retention

ORBIX will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary to completely provide services requested by yourself. Upon completion of those services, your data will be destroyed.
